DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to Applicant's amendment filed on 7/9/2004.

Claims 1-48 are pending.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-48 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The present invention is directed to creating a message endpoint for client on a device to communicate with a service within a distributed computing environment. The closest prior art, Roberts et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,560,633), teaches a method and apparatus for creating network services by creating a module that produces code used as a runtime model that provides the XML definitions of a web service application. Roberts does not explicitly teach the feature of client obtaining a service advertisement for said service wherein the service indicates whether or not access to said service is restricted; if access is restricted, obtaining an authentication credential to access the service. The cited prior art, either singularly or in combination, does not anticipate or render the above underlined feature obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
